

June 1, 2005 - Department Announces Leadership Changes

Media Contact:

Department of Correction

Java Ahmed

(317) 234-1693

E-mail: jahmed@doc.in.gov

For Immediate Release

June 1, 2005

Indianapolis , Indiana – (June 1, 2005) The Indiana Department of Correction today announces several changes in responsibility within the agency to better focus on execution of strategic initiatives, operations and reentry.

Edward Motley will assume the duties and responsibilities as Deputy Commissioner over all the Department's Operations Divisions.

Bruce Lemmon will assume the duties and responsibilities over all the Department's Administrative Divisions.

The responsibilities and duties of Deputy Commissioner Julie Von Arx will remain the same, but her position has been re-titled to "Deputy Commissioner of Reentry and Community Programs."

Rondle Anderson will be joining Charles Miller as a Regional Director of Departmental Operations. The regional director duties and responsibilities with respect to juvenile facilities will be divided and incorporated into the responsibilities of Mr. Miller and Mr. Anderson.

"I am very excited that Rondle will be taking on the responsibility of managing operations for the Department in the southern region," said J. David Donahue, Commissioner of the Department. "Rondle has a track record of delivering results and will undoubtedly help us achieve our business objectives."

Anderson's previous role was Superintendent of Pendleton Juvenile Correctional Facility with the Indiana Department of Correction. He started with the Department of Correction in 1977 as a Correctional Officer and was then promoted through the ranks as Counselor, Youth Group Leaders, Case Work Manager, Unit Team Manager, Superintendent and Director of Juvenile Services, all in the State of Indiana.

He also has been certified to develop and train mid-level managers with the Department of Correction on course topics of Respecting Diversity, Basic Supervisory Leadership, and Inter-Personal Communication Skills, as well as being a National consultant for the National Institute of Correction, U. S. Department of Justice. He is also a member of the American Correctional Association, Past President of the Indiana Correctional Association, National Association of Blacks in Criminal Justice, Kiwanis International and Prince Hall Free Masonry.

Anderson received his Bachelor of Science Degree from Indiana University in Criminal Justice, School of Public and Environmental Affairs (SPEA).

About The Department of Correction

The Department employs over 8,000 employees and houses 23,000 adult offenders and more than 1,000 juveniles, in 32 facilities, ranging from minimum to maximum custody, prison camps, juvenile facilities and work release centers. The Department's home page on the Internet can be found at: <http://www.in.gov/indcorrection>.